COOLEY, LOYAL TO THE FLAG.

Ft. McKinley, P. L., May 31, 1917.
Dear Editor and Friends:—This is the last day of May, the time when Old Kentucky is in her glory. And also the time of year for corn bread, buttermilk and good old turnip greens and as a side issue I'll mention a few poached eggs, fresh from the new mown hay and some ham what am. Just at this time of year the summer girl blooms out. Of all the girls from coast to coast and as far east as the Orient, I think the Kentucky corn fed girl beats them all. Although I never possessed the heavenly pleasure of a sweetheart, but God bless them, I love them all, for my mother was a woman. This land known as the dark and bloody ground is also filled with gentlemen of the tenderest hearts, with courtesies and manners of a knight of the dead age. They are gone but their souls live again in the hearts of the Kentuckians. You find them everywhere to the utmost parts of the earth and wherever you meet him you have a feeling you have met a friend from down home, for always the good fellowship that exists only among Kentuckians prevails throughout the world. They are noted for their gentle manners, love of moonshine whiskey and a turning of the cylinder with a quickness that deceives the eye. A man is always at home and is never lonesome if he is from Kentucky. The old command or 9th Infantry is filled with the best brand of these gentlemen. Just ask Cabell Woods, if you don't believe me, I'll bet ten to one he is coming back, though I don't know it. When "My Old Kentucky Home" is played this far away, it causes a flutter of the heart and a tear drop the size of a rain drop to stand in your eye, and he your home a mansion or a cabin, you long for the good old days back home. The notes of a violin brings back memories of a father you told good-bye and will probably never see again, and in making up your bunk you will have a memory of a bed mother used to make and biscuits too. Yes, I wish for a life that even the Kaiser himself would envy, but friends a blood stained battle flag and the needs of our country looms up before me and I close from view all the pleasures which I have just pictured to you. I'll lay down my life, and follow it to eternity before I'll see its standard broken and its stars and stripes trampled in the dust and its followers ruthlessly murdered by a War God, called the Kaiser. I may be in this war who knows, but if I am snuffed out by this persecutor of humanity, I hope that my country may live on forever and that my friends will know that I died in a faithful discharge of my duty to uphold the emblem of this country, and all I ask of them in return is that in the future years my comrades and I will not be forgotten and each may give us the honor justly due us. I may enjoy a few enlistments with the good St. Peter, but thank goodness I will try to have a German with me. I hope that every able bodied man will enlist in this time of need. None but the yellow coward will turn his back on his country in a time like this. I don't think we have a man in our country like this. Let us hope not. Why should man fear, the sickle of death? There is but one death which is sure and certain. Why not spend your life in a cause that is just? Hoping every one will have a circus making Germans play hooky with grave yard on the western front. I am as ever, an old resident, M. E. Cooley, Co. L. 31st Infantry.

LIFT YOUR CORNS OFF WITH FINGERS

Tells How To Loosen A Tender Corn Or Callus So It Lifts Out Without Pain

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn or callus the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, lifts off with the fingers.

Freezone dries the moment it is applied, and simply shrivels the corn or callus without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue of the skin. A small bottle of freezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but will positively rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or hardened callus. If your druggist hasn't any freezone he can get it at any wholesale drug house for you. 1

GREAT MASONIC CELEBRATION

The Mt. Vernon Signal has the following to say about the Masonic Celebration at Crab Orchard in June 23rd: The Masonic Celebration at Crab Orchard, on last Saturday, was one of the biggest events of the kind ever held in the state. It is conservatively estimated that there were between 8,000 and 10,000 present. Plenty to eat, lots of good music, fine speeches, plenty of the best water on earth, made the day a most pleasant one. Not the least thing took place to mar the pleasure of the notable event. To Grand Master J. N. Saunders and his able corps of assistants is due the credit for the successful manner in which nearly every thing was managed.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

Every family without exception should keep this preparation at hand during the hot weather of the summer months. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is worth many times its cost when needed and is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. It has no superior for the purposes for which it is intended. Buy it now. Obtainable everywhere.

DOINGS THE COUNTRY OVER

The law abolishing capital punishment has become effective in Missouri.

A strike of the coal miners in Hopkins, Union, Webster, Christian and Henderson counties has been called for today.

At Covington Edward Wright shot and killed his wife, his sister-in-law and then shot himself through the head. His wife had filed suit for divorce.

A Paris dispatch says that a housewife cannot buy a 50-pound sack of coal in France for love nor money, but that the highbrows can get it at $75 per ton.

Hugh M. Dorsey, who became famous by his prosecution of Leo Frank at Atlanta, was inaugurated governor of Georgia Saturday, succeeding Nat E. Harris.

Dr. Thomas Judson Shipman, formerly of this State, but recently pastor of the First Baptist church at Meridian, Miss., died at Richmond, Va., while being taken to a sanitarium.

A trolley car on the gorge route carrying forty persons, jumped the track and ran into the Niagara River. Eight persons are known to have been killed, two are missing and twenty-four injured.

Eunice Battle, aged 13, is dead at Lexington. When President Wilson was married, the little girl sent her congratulations. President Wilson on being notified of her death, sent a beautiful floral design.

Sherman Jewell, aged 60, and a prominent farmer of Clark county, was stabbed to death Sunday afternoon at Crab Orchard, aged 18, is held on the charge of murder. It is said that Alfred stabbed Jewell because he refused to give him a drink of whiskey.

At least fifteen negroes were shot and killed in East St. Louis last night as they fled from their burning homes, which had been set on fire by white mobs. The number who perished in the burning houses is unknown. Estimates of the number of negroes who perished run as high as 100.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has denied the plan of the railroads of the United States for a horizontal increase of 15 per cent. in freight rates. In its decision the commission indicated its willingness to increase class rates in the Eastern district approximately 14 per cent. Since about one-fourth of the freight handled is moved under class rates, the decision virtually allows the Eastern lines about 4 per cent. increase in gross freight revenue. Increases sought in rates on coal, coke and iron ore will be granted. The commission found, as the result of extended hearings, that the carriers generally show a substantial and increasing financial prosperity, and that they have ample resources with which to conduct transportation.

Commissioner McChord dissented from the finding and Commissioner Meyers dissented in part.

MARRIAGES

Dewey Goins, aged 19, and Miss Mary Maples, 21, were married at Mt. Vernon Monday.

Friends in this city of Miss Priscilla Newburn, of Hustonville, will be interested in the news of her marriage Tuesday to Mr. Junius H. Reid, at the residence of Dr. E. M. Green in Danville. The wedding was quite a surprise to their numerous friends. The bride has frequently been the guest in this city of her aunt, Mrs. Rodman Keenon, and is a most charming and attractive young lady. The groom is connected with the Chestnut-Salter Hardware Company, of Danville, and is considered a very successful young business man. —Harrodsburg Herald.

Biliousness And Stomach Trouble

"Two years ago I suffered from frequent attacks of stomach trouble and biliousness," writes Miss Emma Verbyrke, Lima, Ohio. I could eat very little food that agreed with me and I became so dizzy and sick at my stomach at times that I had to take hold of something to keep from falling. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets advertised I decided to try them. I improved rapidly." Obtainable everywhere.

GOES TO THIRD CLASS

The Waynesburg postoffice has been advanced from the fourth to third class and international money orders may now be secured there. Many other advantages are to be derived from the change. Miss Cora Singleton, the efficient postmaster, is deserving of congratulations for being instrumental in the advancement of the office.

The officers and members of the Red Cross Chapter would appreciate it very much if those who have autographs would tender their use to those who are trying to organize branch Red Cross Chapters in Lincoln county. The favor will be of help to them and not a great expense or inconvenience to auto owners.

Mr. Brooks is no stranger in Lincoln county, having been the popular preacher at Turnersville during his college days and having held recently a very successful meeting in Richmond in which a number of Stanford citizens heard him. He is an evangelist of national reputation and success and his singer, Mr. Lewis is said to be one of the most charming singers in the field. This team will be a great help to the religious forces of Stanford and there is no doubt their meetings will be largely attended.

He paid $925 for the bale and the same will be sold at auction in New York today. Mr. Slack is a member of the firm of Hubbard, Slack & Company.—Danville Advocate.

TWENTY-SEVEN JOIN AT C. O.

The officers and some of the members of the local Red Cross Society went to Crab Orchard Sunday night and organized a chapter there. The meeting was held in the Christian church and above twenty-seven members were enrolled. Mr. K. S. Alcorn gave a very appropriate and interesting talk. The officers chosen are: Rev. Pervis, chairman; Mr. H. G. Skiles, vice chairman; Mr. T. B. Lyne, secretary and Mr. Maurice Perkins, treasurer. The people in Crab Orchard, as elsewhere, realize the importance of the Red Cross movement and have entered the work with great enthusiasm. The first contributing membership ($5) in the county was taken in Crab Orchard Sunday night. Who will be the next in the county?

MENEFEE GETS PROMOTION

Col. James T. Menefee, who is connected with the Forest City Paint Co., got another promotion beginning with July 1st. He is now general sales manager of the big concern, with headquarters at Cleveland. He has some half hundred or more salesmen under him, and while he thinks he will find the job a difficult one, his legion of friends here know that he is big enough to hold down the place and do it well.

Constipation And Indigestion

"I have used Chamberlain's Tablets and must say they are the best I have ever used for constipation and indigestion. My wife also used them for indigestion and they did her good," writes Eugene S. Knight, Wilmington, N. C. Chamberlain's Tablets are mild and gentle in their action. Give them a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the agreeable laxative effect which they produce. Obtainable everywhere.

NOTICE!

All persons owning lots in Crab Orchard cemetery, or having relatives buried on same, are hereby notified to clean their lots at once. In case of failure to do so the Cemetery Co. will have said work done at their expense. R. H. Bronaugh, M. M. Perkins, M. M. Phillips, trustees. 2-2

THE NEW SPIRIT

The Fourth of July will be celebrated this year in a spirit more nearly approaching that in which the national holiday was instituted. During the years intervening since that day, which is the most memorable in the history of the country, the true significance of the occasion has been all but lost, and the celebration has been given over to events without meaning; degenerated into mere noise making, athletic contests and the most frivolous diversions.

While no one can make valid quarrel with the exuberant life which bubbles over in this good land, and tends to make a holiday upon slight provocation, there still exists in the hearts of thoughtful Americans a feeling of reverential solemnity in connection with Independence Day, upon which such demonstrations as we have mentioned break with bomb-like rudeness.

Therefore, the efforts of the Committee on Public Information to have July 4 observed this year on a high plane of national patriotism should meet with spontaneous response. The Interior Journal hopes to see the people of this section take hold and lay plans to that end.

BIG SHOOT AT C. O. SPRINGS

Wednesday and Thursday, July 4 and 5, will be big days for those Kentuckians who love to "spill gun powder." A two-day shoot has been planned and Crab Orchard Springs is decided on as the place to hold it. Everything is in readiness for it and many clay pigeon shots from this and other States have gathered at the Springs for the purpose of breaking not only clay pigeons, but their own or somebody else's record. The shoot is under the supervision of Emilio Pragoof, of Louisville, who has conducted such snorty contests in many sections of Kentucky. Prizes and trophies will be awarded those who make the best records, some of them being very handsome and costly. Word from the Springs this morning was that the crowd is gathering fast and that the shoot promises to be a big affair.

FAIR PROSPECTS BRIGHT

The fair directors held an important meeting Saturday afternoon. A report of the committee to secure advertisements for the catalogue showed that splendid work had been done and many advertisements secured. It is hoped that work will begin on the catalogue this week. Those persons who took space and have failed to send in the copy, will confer a favor by mailing the copy at once to the secretary. The prospects for a great fair are most promising. People are writing for catalogues from many sections and horsemen are already engaging stall room. It looks now as if the crowds that will attend the Lincoln County Fair Aug. 22, 23 and 24, will rival the one that gathered at Crab Orchard at the Masonic Celebration ten days ago.

A CONFIDENTIAL WORD

I trust it will not be necessary to send you a statement of the account you owe, but knowing that your account with me is unpaid, you will come forward at once and settle. It is not pleasing at all to "dun" people and I sincerely hope you will not make it necessary for me to have to either speak or write to you about your account. I want your trade, but must also ask prompt payment of bills made with. The change in my business makes it very essential that all accounts be closed, so kindly settle with me either with the cash or by good note. Thanking you, Very truly, J. W. Acey.

DEATH OF YOUNG WIFE

Clarence Robbins, who lives on R. C. Hocker's farm, was called on Sunday to give up his wife, aged 21. She had been ill for some time and was taken to Somerset for treatment, where she died. The remains were brought home and on Monday afternoon were laid to rest in the burying ground at McCormack's church. Mr. J. C. McClary made appropriate remarks at the grave. Besides the husband the young wife left two children, the younger only two months old.

FOUR SERVING UNCLE SAM

A St. Louis paper contains the pictures of the four sons of Hon. Breckinridge Jones and Mrs. Jones, of that city, all of whom are either serving or getting ready to serve Uncle Sam. Reid Jones is captain of an engineers' reserve corps. Dan W. Jones is seeing coast patrol service. John C. Colwell, Jr., is a second lieutenant and Kent G. Colwell is in training in the officers' reserve corps. Two Colwells are sons of Mrs. Jones.

FINCH SALE JULY 17th

Paul Finch, who owns the splendid Drake's Creek Farm in the East End, has placed in the hands of the United Realty Co., of Wilmington, N. C., for sale, and it will be disposed of at auction Tuesday, July 17. Frank Smith, a representative of the Realty Co., was here this week and ordered advertising matter, which will appear in Friday's paper.

TAKING BIG CHANCES

It is a great risk to travel without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as this preparation cannot be obtained on the trains or steamships. Attacks of bowel complaint are often sudden and very severe, and everyone should go prepared for them. Obtainable everywhere.

DEATH OF LITTLE CHILD

A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Price, of Louisville, died there Saturday and was brought here and buried in Buffalo Springs cemetery Sunday morning. The little thing was a twin. Its mother was a Miss Martin, a sister of C. R. Martin, of Danville, who attended the burial.

DEATH REMOVES GOOD MAN

Mr. James A. Givens, one of the best known citizens of Lincoln county, passed away early Sunday morning, July 1st. For several years he had been very feeble, afflicted with rheumatism. Recently, his heart action became seriously affected, and it was apparent that his condition was critical. A few days ago, in hope that the change would benefit him, he was brought from his home near McKinney to his sister's Mrs. Bettie McKinney, in Stanford, and it was there he received the final summons.

Mr. Givens was born in this county April 28, 1838, the son of Robert H. Givens and Amanda Walker Givens. His family, both on the maternal and paternal side, had long been established in this county. His mother was a great granddaughter of Major Andrew Wallace, a soldier of the American Revolution, who came here at the close of the war. She was also a descendant of Dr. Thomas Walker, who led an exploring party into Kentucky some years before Daniel Boone first came into this country. Mr. Givens' father was a farmer, and his son chose farming as his life occupation.

A man of strong convictions, he believed in the justice of the Southern cause, and on Sept. 8, 1862, he gave himself to the support of the Confederacy, enlisting in Company "A", 6th Kentucky Cavalry, C. S. A. This was Captain "Bob" Logan's company, Col. Grigsby's regiment, Gen. John H. Morgan's command. The phrase "Morgan's Men" has come down to us as synonymous with all that is daring and courageous in war. And not a man of that dashing division better earned such a reputation than Mr. Givens. Calm, but intrepid, modest, but unflinching where duty called, he was such a soldier as would bring pride to any commander.

The best evidence of a man's conduct, in war as in peace, is that of those who have seen him put to the test. Among Mr. Givens' companions in arms was George Alcorn, long since deceased. In a letter to his father, the late Alfred Alcorn, dated Nov. 15, 1863, now in the possession of Mrs. W. H. Higgins, a sister of George Alcorn, the letter referred to Mr. Givens in these terms: "I desire to fight by no braver man than Mack Helm and James Givens." Only recently an old comrade who served in the same company with him remarked: "The South had no better soldier than Jim Givens."

When Morgan made his famous raid into Ohio, Mr. Givens was with him. Along with most of the command, he was captured, imprisoned, then exchanged and later was one of the guard of honor that served as personal escort to Jefferson Davis when he left Richmond in the last days of the conflict. He followed the "Stars and Bars" till that flag was hurled forever, surrendering at Athens, Ga., in May 1865.

Lincoln county, and took up again the threads of civil life, so sadly ordered by the call to arms. Thenceforth he lived here: a man without guile, of blameless integrity, whose dealings with his fellow men were always scrupulously honorable, and who truly numbered his friends by his acquaintances.

He evinced deep interest in public affairs, eager to form himself concerning state and national policies of government. He was a life long Democrat.

While never seeking to make a display of his religious views, he was a firm believer in the principles of the Christian religion, and was of Presbyterian persuasion.

Mr. Givens never married. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Bettie McKinney and a brother, R. H. Givens. A brother Walker Givens died many years ago, while three sisters preceded him to eternity: Miss Lettie Givens, Miss Belle Givens and Mrs. Anne Alcorn, wife of Dr. Edward Alcorn, of Hustonville.

THE PRIMARY CLOSE AT HAND

The primary for the nomination of county officers, Senators and Representatives is only four weeks off from Saturday next. The campaign is waxing pretty warm and the white-hot stage will likely be reached before Aug. 4th. So far the candidates have departed themselves well and it is hoped that they will continue to do so and that none will by word or deed do that which will cause ill feeling among democrats or furnish ammunition for the enemy in the election this fall. It is far more important that the party win in November than it is for any candidate to win in August.

BAUGH DIES OF TUBERCULOSIS

Walter Baugh, aged 23, died in the Lexington Tuberculosis Sanitarium at Lexington and was brought to his home near Highland for burial. He had been working in Lee county. Baugh, who was the son of John Baugh, of Highland, was a fine young man. Rev. Edward Hubbard preached his funeral. An exceedingly large crowd attended his burial.

BUILDING BIG GARAGE

Phillips Bros., Stanford's up-to-date concrete men, are building for Haselden Bros., of Lancaster, a big two-story concrete garage, in which the Ford car will be exhibited as well as public service given. The building is to be two stories high, 200 feet long and is to have a frontage of 38 feet.

L. & N. MAKES RAISES

The L. & N. has raised the salaries of its operators and agents 10 per cent., the section bosses are given 12 per cent. more, while the section men are raised 20 per cent. The raise was effective July 1st.

William Winter, dean of the dramatic critics in America, died at his home at New Brighton, Staten Island.

THE LATEST WAR NEWS

Prisoners exceeding 10,000 and capture of the village of Konichy and strongly fortified positions southwest of Brzezany are the first fruits of the new offensive movement of the Russian forces in Eastern Galicia. North of Konichy the Russians have attacked and fresh battles are in progress. The Russian artillery, long inactive for lack of shells, played an important part in the defeat of the Austro-Germans at Konichy. For forty days a rain of iron was thrown into the German positions and Berlin says officially that they were turned into a crater field. The Russians not only carried three lines of German trenches and Konichy, which was strongly fortified, but also advanced to the Konichy stream south of the village, which is on the Ziota Lipa River.

The new Emperor of China has taken possession of the palace, closely guarded by military leaders. Washington was shocked by the change of Government in China to a monarchy.

The French armored cruiser, Kleber, 7,578 tons, has been sunk off Point St. Mathieu, while on her way from Dakar, French West Africa. She was destroyed by mine with the loss of thirty-eight men.

Greece has severed diplomatic relations with Germany and her allies and apparently soon will take the field against them on the side of the Entente.

Eighty-seven of the German merchant ships seized in American ports at the outbreak of the war were turned over by President Wilson to the Shipping Board for operation.

FIVE SHOTS TAKE EFFECT

In a shooting bee at King's Mountain Sunday between Tilden Gooch and Bud Robinson, in which a large number of shots were fired, Gooch was shot twice and Robinson three times. Both men are "laid up for repairs" and it is probable that Robinson will be in bed for a long time. He received pistol wounds in hand, elbow and hip. His elbow is shattered and the ball that entered the hip has not been located. The hand wound is considered a trivial one. Gooch was shot in the shoulder and thigh—both flesh wounds—painful, but not thought to be serious ones. Gooch keeps a soft drink stand at King's Mountain and Robinson is said to have entered it Sunday and was so noisy that Gooch put him out of the establishment. Robinson is said to have waited on the outside, talking to Bud Hargard and others, until Gooch came out. When the latter finally appeared Robinson is said to have told him that they had just as well settle their trouble then and there and shot twice at him. Gooch returned fire with the above result. No date has yet been set for the trial, but the men are under bond or under guard.

GREAT RED CROSS RALLY

There will be a Red Cross Rally at the Presbyterian church Friday night at 8 o'clock. Every one wearing a Red Cross button is urged to come and bring others with them and help make this a real rally. Plans are being made to have a parade Friday afternoon. Volunteer your cars and meet in front of the court house at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. It is hoped that all the members of the Hubble, Hustonville and Crab Orchard chapters will be present Friday night.

LOSE ANOTHER DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Decker, who live on the farm of J. H. McAlister, on the Milledgeville pike, buried a three-months-old daughter Friday afternoon and on the day following were called on to give up another daughter, 17 months old. The latter died of cholera infantum. The child was buried by the side of her little sister in McCormack's burying ground. Great sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Decker in the irreparable losses they have sustained.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

Tomorrow is July 4th, the glorious day many of us delight in celebrating. Nothing out of the ordinary will be done in Stanford, but those of our citizens who are of a sportive turn will hike to Crab Orchard Springs and either take part in or witness the shoot to be pulled off there July 4 and 5th. The clans are already gathering there and the two-day clay pigeon shoot promises to be a big affair. Mrs. Willis is prepared to care well for all who come.

BIG BARBECUE AND SALE

The United Realty Co., with headquarters at Wilmington, N. C., will sell at public outcry on Friday next, 6th, the John D. Carpenter farm near Hustonville. The farm is owned by W. B. Hill, of this city, who has placed it in the hands of the above company to dispose of. A good dinner will be served at the grounds, a race land will entertain things with music, while valuable presents, including a barrel of flour, will be given away.

GOING TO FIGHT FOR U. S.

As a result of the visit here of Capt. Back and Taylor and their demonstration of the Lewis gun Friday, three Stanford men went to Louisville that afternoon to be examined for service in the army. They are Arch Atkins, Tom Doughty and Joe Traylor. The latter is a son of Allen Traylor, of this city, and is only about 16 years old. His parents gave their consent for him to join.

JOSEPH HODGE PASSES AWAY

Joseph Hodge, aged 73, died Monday at his home near Highland and was buried this afternoon in the Mt. Moriah burying ground. Besides his wife he leaves several children. He was a kind-hearted, clever man and will be sadly missed in the neighborhood he lived so long.

The Flag!

It speaks sublimity, and every part has a voice. Its stripes of alternate red and white proclaim the original union of thirteen states to maintain the declaration of independence. White is purity; red, for valor; blue, for justice.

THE G. O. P. IN FAYETTE

In the language of the poet, Fayette republicans are in a 'cell of a fix. They held a meeting long and duly advertised one night last week to try to nominate candidates for county offices. The night came but with it no crowd and no response to the appeal for men to come over and help pull g. o. p. out of a hole, by volunteering sacrifice on the altar of office. Knowing that they are up against it and that the record of the Democratic administration, headed by Judge Frank A. Bullock, is without reproach and that it is worse than useless to oppose him and the ticket that will be nominated, there has yet been found no Republican fool hardy enough to want to be imolated for his rashness, so a "persuasion committee" was appointed to try to induce Republicans to run for some of the offices at least. Perhaps the committee may find some who are longing for a little cheap notoriety to accept nominations, but they will be of a class that will neither command votes nor respect. Meantime the Leader, fearing the prestige that will be lost if the election is allowed to go by default, is sending its nether garment and seeing that the volunteer plan is a total failure is urging a selective draft. Unfortunately for it however, there is no penalty that can be enforced against slackers in this case and Brer Giovannoli is becoming disconsolate. The fusion trick of a few years ago can not be worked again and it looks very much now like there will be no opposition to the Democratic ticket.

RURAL CREDITS SWINDLE

One of the boldest swindles that have been worked in Lexington since the days of the get-rich investment companies, which caught suckers by the thousand on a promise to pay triple the money invested and finally paid nothing, leaving the so-called investors the bag to hold, is developed in the Rural Credit Association in the testimony taken by the referee in bankruptcy. It seems that one Vallandingham, who held a contract signed by Former Appellate Judge John M. Lassing as the company's representative, got 25 per cent. of all subscriptions, which was practically all the money that was collected. The strange part of the story is that Gov. McCreary, who was induced by an offer of $5,000 salary to become president and lend his honorable name to give endorsement to the swindling scheme, was not cognizant of this contract, neither was J. L. Watkins, treasurer, nor J. C. Van Meter, the secretary. It is claimed that it was not made a matter of record, a very conclusive evidence of fraudulent intent, for which somebody or bodies ought to be made to do time. A number of our citizens are losers in the swindle and they would be very glad to hear that the Fayette grand jury had indicted the rascals and that the whole matter will be aired in a criminal court.

The transfer of the office of collector of internal revenue in the seventh district was made Saturday with neither the outgoing nor the incoming collector present. Ben Marshall it is said made it convenient not to be in the custom house at the time and Percy Haly did not go near, preferring to take the oath of office at the Phoenix Hotel. The two have long been enemies and not having spoken for 20 years, both apparently feared what might happen should they be thrown face to face. Haly's first act was to continue in office all those not protected by the civil service and for the present at least the office will be run by the same force. The revenue agent found Marshall's accounts all right and every cent of the $20,883,229.48 collected by him accounted for. He has made a fine collector but that cut no figure in Senator Beckham's intention to have him removed as soon as possible a man he says is personally obnoxious to him. There is no rumor of further internal revenue changes and it is hoped that Collector Hughes and the others that have made good will be retained for another four years.

Editor Urey Woodson, of Owensboro Messenger, is disposed to be facetious with the "Little Tooley Street" of the Lexington Herald, but if he can appreciate when he is well off he will desist. Should the l. t. s. train his guns on him, he will wish that he had never been born or that a weight was tied about his neck and that he was cast into the beautiful Ohio which sweeps majestically by this little village. Verbum sat sap, as we French say.

Cecil Williams, editor of the Somerset Journal, will be the democratic nominee for Representative in the Pulaski-McCreary district. As the two counties have a normal republican majority of something under 5,000, it is hardly probable that Mr. Williams' editorial duties will be interfered with. However, if by chance he should be elected, he would make an excellent representative.

The Louisville Times is again tipping Ralph Gilbert, of Shelbyville, for Congress in this district. It says that there is an understanding between Gilbert and George L. Pickett that they will not oppose each other in the race. That's clever of the gentlemen. A nice little arrangement that it is very probable that Congressman Harvey Helm will materially interfere with.

Secretary of War Baker repudiates the agreement that coal operators shall get $3 a ton at the mines and says the price is "unjust, exorbitant and oppressive." If the secretary shall be able to reduce the very unnecessary addition to the high cost of living most of us will trp to forget that he seems to be a failure as head of a war department in time of war.

E. H. Taylor, Jr., the Frankfort distiller, has declared for prohibition during the war. As the "prince of entertainers" has several big warehouses full of booze, there may be a reason why he wants other distilleries as well as his own to close down.

The scarcer the article the higher the price it commands.

The opinion that the price of $3 a ton for bituminous coal at the mines, agreed upon by the operators in conference with Secretary Lane and other Government officials, is "exorbitant, unjust and oppressive," was expressed by Secretary Baker in a letter made public by the War Department. Mr. Baker said the conferees had acted without authority and indicated that the price fixed would not be paid by his department for coal to be used in military establishments.
